Young Children Can Have BIG Emotions: Strategies for Creating Calm Out of Chaos in your Home

Guest Speakers:
Kandi Novak, Child Care Connection, a program of Info Line, Inc.
Shannon Brown, Child Guidance & Family Solutions

Location: Summit County Public Health
1867 W. Market Street, Akron (located behind Acme #1)

All children have a variety of emotions. It's what they do with their emotions that matter. Parents and children will get to visit a variety of learning stations that teach about feelings and demonstrate strategies for learning to cope with feelings. Parents will gain a better understanding of what to expect about their child's emotional development and receive tips for channeling their child's emotions.

SPACE IS LIMITED TO 45 PARENTS AND 30 CHILDREN.
Advance registration is required, call (330) 379-2090.

Thursday, April 27, 6-7:30 p.m.

Getting Ready for School Begins Early: You Have What It Takes to Build Your Child's Brain

Guest Speakers:
Kandi Novak, Child Care Connection, a program of Info Line, Inc.

Laura McFalls, Akron-Summit County Public Library

Location: Children's Library, Akron-Summit County Public Library, 60 S. High Street, Downtown Akron

There are 2,000 days from the day a child is born until they go to Kindergarten. Every day counts. Join us to learn how to make everyday moments with your child into brain-building moments. You and your child will have fun visiting stations where they will get to experience rhyming, reading and math, talking about feelings and more! Sharing these moments with your child will help shape their growing mind.

SPACE IS LIMITED TO 30 PARENTS AND 20 CHILDREN.
Advance registration is required, call (330) 379-2090.
