Know Your Permanency Options

Fully understanding your options for permanency for children in your care is the best way for you to make the most informed long-term decisions for your family.

Legal Custody (LC) vs. Adoption

LC = Parental rights are not terminated which permits parents rights to visitation, pay child support, and to petition the court to have legal custody returned to the parent. You may be eligible for KGAP.

Adoption = Parental rights are terminated when permanent custody is granted. Parents do not have a right to visitation and legally no child support can be ordered. The child(ren) may be eligible to receive an adoption subsidy and potentially Post Adoption Special Services Subsidy (PASSS) funds.
